

'We need to up our game'

Leaders urged to make most of town's tourism in bid to boost economy

BUSINESS leaders say Weymouth must "talk up" its town centre if it is to reverse a pattern of shop closures, fewer shoppers and revenue leaking away to competitors such as Dorchester.

Their strongly worded message came when they joined councillors, Weymouth Civic Society (WCS) and members of the public for a special meeting on the economic health and wellbeing of Weymouth town centre.

The meeting was arranged by WCS and chaired by Gerald Mabb who said: "We have tourism and we cannot afford to lose it. I feel it is possibly the answer for Weymouth."

Chamber of Commerce president Mark Blunden said Christmas and Halloween events will be joining a new event for September 2014 based on Weymouth's maritime history because tourism was "very high" on the chamber's agenda.

He added: "We all need to talk the town up, to be positive. Everyone is an ambassador. We cannot expect the council to run this town for us. They haven't got the money. The private sector has to run it. If we don't use our town centre then how can we expect others to?"

He urged a "level playing field" on parking with Dorchester, welcomed free Weymouth parking in council-run car parks from 6pm-9.30am starting Friday, November 1st and said the chamber would welcome reduced day charges as well.

He added: "If all the groups in town join together we will have a much louder voice. There is a positive side to our town and that needs to be got across.

"We need to promote Weymouth but we should also work with other chambers including Dorchester because people rarely come on holiday and stay in one town. We should not be afraid to promote towns around us because, hopefully, they will promote us too."

Weymouth and Portland partnership economy committee chairman Roger Dalton said shopping patterns had "changed massively" particularly with the growth in on-line retailing while figures showed soaring shop vacancies in town centres and growing out-of-town retailing.

He said: "We need to bring humour back to the town centre. It has to be a living breathing space and our waterfront is our strength. All we have to do is provide a better integrated link to the town centre."

He talked about the forthcoming Victorian

Shownight on December 6th which was being

DAWN Barnes is manager of the gift shop team at the Nothe Fort, Weymouth. She attended Weymouth College for teacher training from 1975-1978 before teaching in Dagenham until 2011 when her husband, Dennis, retired.

She started at the Nothe Fort shop as a volunteer to get to know local people and graduated from there to the events committee and finally the shop.

● WHY do you live in Weymouth?

My husband, Dennis, and I wanted somewhere near the coast which could give us an opportunity for walking and natural activities. Weymouth fitted the bill and we actually first met in the Weymouth College bar in 1978.

● WHERE do you go for your holidays?

Mostly Europe and the Canary Islands because we can only go on holiday at a certain time of the year and these destinations always offer good weather.

● WHAT is your favourite time of the year?

Probably the summer for sun, water and walking. It is a pleasure to go down to the harbour and see how it changes and develops each day.

● WHAT is your favourite film?

One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest because at the time it really struck a chord with me. I have visited patients in mental sites, so the film actually meant something to me.

● WHAT is the scariest thing that has ever happened to you?

A fairground ride in a giant saucer on Lanzarote. I was absolutely terrified. I don't mind heights but this contraption was so flimsy, I had my little son with me and I was really scared, petrified, but I had to be brave. I had nightmares after.

● IF you could live your life again what would you be?

I would like to be able to express myself more creatively. In some ways dance has always appealed to me, but I have never had the co-ordination or aptitude for it, so perhaps a contemporary dancer.

● WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

I would invite the singer Alfie Boe, Pierce Brosnan for looks and the scientist Professor Robert Winston.

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

I would clear the mortgage and I would definitely have a holiday. I would then enjoy the freedom to have time together and do things without having to worry about the cost.

● WHAT do you hope the future holds?

Well, we are starting up a bed and breakfast so I hope that is a success. That will give us an income and free us up to have more spare time in which to explore the area that we have just come to.

Carnival committee offer to save kite festival

WEYMOUTH Carnival organisers have offered to step in and save the town's popular kite festival.

The event's future had been put in doubt because Weymouth and Portland council, which funds the festival, said the cash was now earmarked for a saving to make much needed budget cuts.

But a special meeting at Weymouth Pavilion saw groups and organisations interested in keeping the festival going told by carnival spokesman Michael McManus that carnival

by Harry Walton
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

was willing to take on the mantle of keeping the festival going, provided they got input from "experienced people" such as council events staff and the kite community to help them do so.

He said: "We would be more than happy to take the festival on to keep it going.

"We would intend to invite more trade stands by offering them a package on similar terms to the one we use for carnival."

He added that this could cover the £9,200 cost of the event and pavilion manager Phil Say immediately pledged his support for the offer, adding that, apart from the pavilion forecourt, he would be happy to have some stalls or stands inside the building.

Weymouth and Portland tourism and culture spokesman Councillor Ian Bruce, who chaired the meeting, said he was very keen that any suggestions for the festival also benefitted the pavilion which is now being run by Mr Say's Community Interest Company.

The council's promotions officer Steve Davies said that the kite festival had been running for 22 years and had "exceeded all expectations".

Other suggestions to help the festival ranged from sponsorship and other events being held in tandem to increase and broaden interest in the kite extravaganza.

Allan Potheary of the Close Encounters display team, who has wide experience of kite festivals, said he would be happy to be associated with the event in an advisory capacity while Nigel Reed of Weymouth Business Improvement District said the festival had to have a much more commercial focus.

Mr Bruce thanked Mr McManus for carnival's "great offer" and alerted everyone to the many millions of pounds held by the Local Enterprise Partnership to promote Dorset and improve tourism over the next five years which he said might be tapped into.

He also pointed out that the 2014 festival on May 3rd-5th would be in the centenary year of the First World War. Kites were used during the conflict, he said, so organisers should perhaps consider a military display at next year's event. All ideas put forward will now be explored at a future meeting.

Town feels the force of St Jude

WINDS gusted to nearly 100mph as the worst storm to hit the area for years battered Weymouth and Portland.

A gust of more than 85 knots (98mph) was recorded in Portland Harbour while Dorset Police reported more than 100 trees down all over the county.

Worst affected locally was the A 354 between Weymouth and Dorchester which was blocked for many hours by 20 fallen trees and a small landslide.

RSPB staff at Weymouth said several trees had come down across paths on the Radipole Lake reserve and they warned walkers to steer clear of the area.

Putton Lane at Chickrell was blocked by a fallen tree near the Willowfleet Hall and a fallen tree also closed Fleet Road between the B3157 and the Moonfleet Hotel.

There were no rail services out of Weymouth until mid-Monday morning while all Condor Ferry services from Weymouth had to be cancelled.

Traffic was forced to slow right down on the B3157 Weymouth-Bridport coast route because of large amounts of surface water and flooding in places.

glory" with everything from snow machines to grottos, initially on Friday this year but on Friday and Saturday in 2014 and on Friday, Saturday and Sunday in 2015.

Mr Dalton added: "The key is to try and avoid seasonality. We need to up our game, decide where we are going over the next ten years and reposition ourselves."

Weymouth and Portland tourism and culture spokesman Councillor Ian Bruce was the third speaker and he said: "Don't ask the council to be a retailer because we are not. We must be the enabler."

"What we want is businesses in the town saying they are going to make more money by selling something extra to tourists.

"We are bringing down parking rates, we are learning from others' experiences and if there is someone who wants to get on and do something we will always be there to try and facilitate that. I am confident that we have a great future for Weymouth and Portland. We are going to make it work."

He told the general debate that followed that guesthouse owners had told him they'd just had their best season ever in the wake of the Olympic Games.

WCS chairman Mary Bennett highlighted increased numbers of cruise ships coming in to Portland Port and the need to "upgrade meeting and greeting" so passengers were given more information, particularly at Brewers Quay, to encourage them to tour Weymouth. Mr Dalton agreed there was "a gap" there as he had seen passengers just wandering about.

Mr Bruce said the "interface" when people got off ships needed to be better and this was up to local businesses.

He added: "We need to get all the traders such as the Nothe Fort together with Portland Port and work out where tourists go when they get off the bus. We have got to be clever at it, but the council isn't going to do it. It has to be you guys."

Mr Blunden suggested events coinciding with cruise ship arrivals while there should also be a dockside stall with information leaflets for passengers.

Have fun this Halloween

WITH Halloween fast approaching, Dorset Police is reminding the public to enjoy the festivities safely but to ensure they respect others.

Enhanced patrols will be carried out by officers on Halloween evening, Thursday October 31st, as well as the weekend before and after.

For the second year running anti-social behaviour has continued to fall significantly in Dorset. Between April 1st and September 30th there were 18,311 incidents of anti-social behaviour in Dorset. This figure has dropped by 6.7 per cent to 17,088 over the same period of 2013 – this is a reduction of 1,227 incidents of anti-social behaviour.

To ensure that these figures remain low during the Halloween period the Association of Chief Police Officers (ACPO) are leading an "In Focus" anti-social behaviour campaign.

The campaign will run over five days from October 28th to November 1st.

Their aim is to highlight the realities of dealing with anti-social behaviour for communities, businesses and the police.

Chief Superintendent Jane Newall said: "We appreciate that people want to go out and enjoy the Halloween festivities and go trick or treating, but it is important to respect the views of others who do not want to participate. If homes are displaying 'No trick or treating' signs, then please politely move on. "Anti-social behaviour continues to reduce in Dorset and during this time we will have extra patrols in communities to ensure that we continue to take appropriate action against anyone found to be committing crime or anti-social behaviour."

Safer Neighbourhood Teams across Dorset have been handing out Halloween posters encouraging the public to 'Have fun on Halloween but please have respect for others'.

A notice has also been made available to residents for them to display during Halloween asking trick or treaters not to call at that property.

A further poster has been created for shops to display informing customers that they will not be selling eggs, flour or fireworks to anyone under the age of 18 during the Halloween and Bonfire Night period.

All of these materials are available to view and download on the Dorset Police website at www.dorset.police.uk.

Trick or treating safety advice:

- Trick or treaters should always have adult supervision
- Only call on friends, family or neighbours – and ideally this should be arranged in advance
- Respect the rights of those who do not want to take part
- Do not accept money and be grateful for any treats
- Do not play tricks on people – these can be frightening and could even be a criminal offence
- Criminal damage – which includes vandalism and throwing objects like eggs and flour – can result in a fine or even a prison sentence.

Carnival queen to take chairman's crown

WEYMOUTH Carnival's new chairman for next year is 2012 Carnival Queen Elysia Jane Munday.

She succeeds outgoing Deputy Carnival Chairman Lucy Compton who was herself Carnival Queen in 2011.

Lucy said: "Although it wasn't our intention to begin a tradition of Carnival Queens taking the Chairman's role, we have been lucky over past years that our carnival queens have been people who are truly passionate and proactive about promoting Weymouth and becoming ambassadors for the town.

"I am delighted that Elysia has been elected as this year's chairman and I wish her the very best of luck in her new role. I would urge the town to support Elysia and the organising committee – all of whom are volunteers –

by Harry Walton
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

as they have a huge task ahead of them.

"A brand new group, Weymouth Carnival and Events Club, stepped in to organise this year's event. We soon learned the sheer enormity of the task we had taken on and we certainly learnt a lot from the experience.

"As with previous carnivals, raising cash to run the event was a huge challenge. It cost £58,000 to run this year, every penny of it raised by hard-working volunteers. Fortunately we raised enough to pay for the event and a little bit more. "We will be withholding some of our profits to help with next year's event and will distribute funds to charitable groups who very generously gave their time on the day to help with their expenses.

"In future years we hope to raise more but, as with anything, we had to start somewhere. We hope our supporters will understand we have invested in the future of carnival and that next year will be better financially. Our main aim however is to put on a fantastic event.

"Weymouth Carnival 2013 was a success and I would like to thank on behalf of myself and the carnival committee all those that came and volunteered and everyone that made the day possible and of course the magnificent crowd."

New chairman Elysia said: "I am absolutely delighted and honoured to be given responsibility for this traditional Weymouth event. I have always been an avid supporter of Weymouth Carnival and the fantastic boost it offers to both the local community and tourism for the area.

"Carnival takes a full year to organise. We've already had the first meeting to decide whether or not we can organise the event for 2014 and discussed initial ideas. I am excited to reveal that we are currently aiming to hold it on the traditional third Wednesday in August, the 20th, a date for your diaries!

"The challenges we face increase year on year. Higher costs, more very strict Health & Safety laws and regulations and the usual requirement for our brilliant volunteers to help on the day.

"Our costs next year could exceed £60,000. There are areas in which we could look to make savings, such as not having the very popular Red Arrows, who cost us around £12,000, but we still have to pay for essentials such as barriers, insurances, road closures, security people and more.

"We have estimated that an additional £1.5million is spent in the town on carnival day, a clear boost to the local economy. We rely very much on the support of local people and businesses, so we'll be out there soon, asking people for their support.

"Now that the foundations have been laid for Weymouth Carnival & Events Club by the wonderful 2013 team and, because of the investments that were made, we can begin to build 2014 bigger and better than ever.

"This event gives back more than just money. It's an outstanding platform for charities, groups and local businesses to utilise to gain positive exposure. "Weymouth Carnival Committee 2014 is now seeking new members so anyone who would like to take a leading role in the biggest local event of the year should contact weymouthcarnival2014@outlook.com."

It will be presented by local historian Brian Bates on Wednesday, November 20th at St Andrew's Church Rooms, Preston.

His illustrated talk will look at the story of Poundbury POW camp during World War I.

The evening, which will include a fish and chip supper and a glass of wine for only £5, starts at 7.30pm.

Those who would like to book a seat should contact Tony or Chris on 01305-832694.

Auction for charity

EVERYTHING from beds to metal storks was on offer when an auction was held in Weymouth for One World charities.

The event at the former St Augustine's Church at Lodmoor Hill attracted keen interest.

Co-organiser Margaret Naine said: "We had about 300 items and we had a steady stream of people in to view and later to bid.

"We hold such auctions about twice a year and we have been doing so for more than ten years.

"We usually make about £2,000 for One World good causes and, because people donate the items, our final total is almost pure profit."

Join in the fun for beach bonfire night

RESIDENTS and visitors are invited to come down for a night of fun at the free annual Big Guy Fawkes Night on Tuesday, November 5th on Weymouth Seafrost.

Fun starts at 2pm with the fun fair in the Pavilion forecourt and stalls along the seafrost followed by the traditional free Children's Guy Fawkes competition at 5.45pm in the Pavilion Theatre Foyer.

Prizes have been donated by the Pavilion Theatre and Alexandra Gardens.

Children wanting to enter the Guy Fawkes competition should meet in the Weymouth Pavilion foyer with their Guys at 5.45pm.

The competition will be judged by special guests including the Mayor of Weymouth and Portland Councilor Ray Banham and James O'Neill from Wessex FM.

The highlights of the night will be the lighting of the giant beach bonfire at 7pm and the fantastic fireworks in Weymouth Bay at 7.20pm.

Weymouth & Portland Borough Council Tourism and Culture brief holder Ian Bruce said: "Weymouth's Big Guy Fawkes event is always a popular community event.

"It is free and we expect lots of families to fill Weymouth Seafrost and enjoy the fun atmosphere of this great British traditional event.

"I hope everyone comes early and supports our Pavilion and the businesses who are staying open to serve us all."

Crowds roar for beach

ROARING engines dominated Weymouth Esplanade when the town's popular annual beach motocross event was held on the sands.

Organisers Weymouth Lions Club and Purbeck Motorcross Club backed by Weymouth and Portland council attracted more than 250 riders to the event.

Professionals and amateurs on machines ranging from 125cc-500cc had to tackle a twisting one-mile course along the beach and over jumps before roaring along a straight close to the sea at speeds of up to 60mph.

Crowds braved occasional rain to enjoy the event which also included vintage vehicles demonstration sessions, a fun fair, Weymouth Concert Brass Band, stalls and even Gorilla Man on his quad bike.

Weymouth and Portland tourism spokesman Councillor Ian Bruce said: "We were delighted to be part of this hugely popular and successful event."

"It is one of Weymouth's biggest event spectacles and testament to a lot of hard work by the local Lions Club, Purbeck Motorcross Club and the borough council."

Lions president Russ Woolley said: "The beach motocross is such a unique event in Weymouth and crowds viewing it from the Esplanade couldn't have had a better spectacle."

"It has built up to be a great success and has raised thousands of pounds for the Lions good causes."

Results: Junior: Luke Oldfield, 16, from Bristol; Senior, James Adams, 21, from Bere Regis; Expert, Nick Life, 37, from Totnes.

Community shop to open in pub

SINCE taking over in January, Blanche, Alex and the team have been working hard to build up a great reputation for food, drink and customer service. After a very successful summer, November sees their new venture opening – a Community Shop in the pub.

Having seen the need for the shop for locals – and visitors – Blanche started thinking about how she could turn around an unused storage room and the idea was born! With the help of the 'ThePubisTheHub' network organisation and the full support of Palmers Brewery, the shop went from an idea to a reality. As the Crown currently uses local suppliers – and advertises the fact – it was easy to work out that the majority of items stocked could be sourced as such – from fruit and vegetables to meat and fish. Along with their home cooked produce such as their pies, patés and puddings and basic provisions of tins and such, the small room now looks welcoming and well stocked.

Open 7 days a week from 9am – 9pm (until 6pm on Sundays) you are promised a warm welcome, ease of access for car parking and the opportunity to stop for a drink or coffee – or even a bite to eat! What more could you want when you are popping out to top up your cupboard or grab that item you just ran out of?...

Friday 1st November sees the opening of this Community service and the team at the Crown would like to invite you to join them in the morning from 11 am to show you their shop and offer you a free bacon sandwich and a coffee – so why not pop along and see for yourself!

Lifeboat search for missing swimmer

A MAJOR rescue operation was launched after a swimmer went missing at Durdle Door near Lulworth Cove.

Weymouth inshore lifeboat was launched after a report of two people in difficulty in the water and, while crew said it appeared that both had made it safely ashore, there were also reports of another person still in the water.

Operations then turned into a search for the reported missing person and Weymouth all-weather lifeboat was also launched to join in the search while several helicopters and the Coastguard cliff rescue teams from Weymouth and Lulworth were also called in to help.

An intensive search of the beaches and sea around the whole area around Durdle Door was carried out until darkness fell and the search was called off.

Christmas bazaar

A CHRISTMAS bazaar will be held at St Paul's Church on Abbotsbury Road, Weymouth, at 11am on Saturday, November 16th.

Swing and supper

A FUNDRAISING event for Portland's Osprey Leisure Centre on November 23rd will feature Darron Garnett singing the songs of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and many more.

The event costs £25 and includes a three-course dinner and music until midnight at the Boat That Rocks.

Tickets are available from the Centre on 01305-824387 and from the Boat That Rocks.

New gallery and studio for artist

A WEYMOUTH artist has opened a new gallery and studio at Brewers Quay.

Janice Wheeler, who paints under the name of Janice Kirkby-Brown, has triumphed over a breakdown she suffered ten-years-ago only for her to recently develop sight problems.

She said: "I am still providing work for my Mouse's Shed gallery and studio but I have to adopt a different mode of work."

"Much of my gallery contains paintings and wire sculptures, but in future I will be exploring more texture in paintings and a greater range of shapes in my wire sculptures.

"I tend to work with themes and I have been exploring sight. I am really hoping to do a work which is very tactile so people without sight can explore and enjoy it."

"I also teach and I am hoping to start a new range of classes for adults and children who are losing their sight."

"But I will always love my mice and I even have four mice figures to welcome visitors to the gallery. Children love them!"

Model railway show pulls into town

HUNDREDS of model trains will be steaming, chugging and rolling into Weymouth on the weekend of Saturday and Sunday November 2nd-3rd.

They are bound for Weymouth's Model Railway Show at Wey Valley School which in 26 years has grown to be the biggest show in the West Country.

There will be 30 layouts ranging in size from those that will fit on a small table to the largest scale designed for gardens.

The show has everything for the enthusiast with new and pre-owned models, accessories comprising scenery, buildings and model road vehicles being offered on 17 trade stands.

Behind the scenes about 100 enthusiasts from all over southern England operate the layouts which are powered by locomotives using live steam, electricity, batteries and even clockwork.

About 1,000 enthusiasts are expected to attend between 10.30am-4.30pm on the Saturday and between 10am-4pm on the Sunday.

On Saturday, railway author and historian Paul Atterbury, who frequently appears as an expert on "Antiques Road Show", will judge the best layout in the show. The winner will receive a plaque from the organisers the Weymouth Model Railway Association.

Says Association chairman Keith Pratt: "Shows are an important part of the hobby because model shops all over the country are closing and there are few places outside clubs like ours where you can get expert advice."

"The choice of locos and rolling stock on offer by traders is huge and reliable second hand models are a cost effective way for beginners to get into the hobby."

Admission costs £5 for adults, £12 for a family of two adults and two children and £2 for a child aged five to 12 with an adult while under-fives are free.

There is free on site parking, disabled visitors are welcome, there will be an all day hot meal service and there will also be model trains for children to drive and practical demonstrations.

Care staff celebrate string of awards

STAFF at Bluebird Care Dorset are celebrating a spate of recent successes after being short-listed as finalists in two awards competitions and winning a third outright.

Director, Chris Scriven, attended the judging day for the South West region of the Great British Care Awards after being short-listed as a finalist in the Care Innovator category.

The Great British Care Awards are a series of regional events to celebrate excellence within care and recognise outstanding contributions made by individuals within their field.

Mr Scriven was one of just four finalists within his category and was short-listed because of the innovative way in which his care at home service, Bluebird Care Dorset, works in partnership with other services throughout the community to ensure positive outcomes are achieved for older local people in a way that goes beyond what is typically assessed by care regulators. This includes involvement with a range of projects including two aimed at promoting dementia friendly communities.

The overall winner of the award will be announced at a gala dinner on November 15th.

More good news came from BCD's Weymouth office which won a trophy as finalists in the South West region at the Bluebird Care annual conference and awards dinner.

One of three short-listed finalists due to the quality of care at home delivery and upholding brand values, the Weymouth office narrowly missed out on the top regional prize after being pipped to the post by the Winchester and Eastleigh office.

Success continued when BCD's recruitment and training manager Wayne Laurence won the Best Manager category after being nominated for a local business award.

Mr Scriven said: "We are extremely pleased with the recognition our service has recently achieved. Our success is a reflection of the quality care at home that we provide."

"I am extremely proud of Wayne and our whole staff team whose commitment to excellence in providing first rate care has drawn such positive attention to our service."

Bluebird Care Dorset provides care at home visits to adults within their own homes and has offices in Weymouth and Ferndown with Care Workers located across the county.

Have you seen Tucker the Tortoise?

HAS anyone seen Tucker the Tortoise who was stolen from Bowleaze Cove way?

Police are keen to reunite Tucker - who is thought to be 60-70 years old - with her very upset owners.

Officers say she was stolen some time between 10am and 12pm on October 18th after the thieves got into an insecure greenhouse.

No arrests have been made.

The tortoise is thought to be worth about £300 and she has been micro chipped.

PC Sally Ludlow, of Weymouth Police said: "The owners are devastated by the loss and urge anyone with any information to come forward."

"I have notified local vets and would also like to hear from anyone who may have been offered a tortoise for sale or may have seen one advertised in strange circumstances."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 26:196 or call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

Which memory would you choose?

DORSET'S award-winning AsOne Theatre Company will be bringing its new AsCend physical theatre branch to Weymouth Pavilion Theatre on November 21st.

The Christian Column

AS I SEE IT ... by Geoff Treleven

Hallowe'en observances

FOR a long time I have wondered about the origins of Hallowe'en, with serious doubts about the way it is now being celebrated. My investigations have confirmed my doubts with what I have discovered. There is, in fact, a very Christian basis which seems to have been lost over the years.

Hallowe'en is a contraction for All Hallows' Eve, being the day before All Hallows' Day, also known as All Saints' Day in the Christian calendar. The name derives from the Old English 'hal-lowed' meaning holy or sanctified. The Church traditionally held a vigil on All Hallows' Eve when worshippers would prepare themselves with prayers and fasting prior to the feast day itself.

This all goes to show how prone we are to lose a beautiful and worshipful practice for something totally different. Christmas is another example of how we celebrate a festival with comparatively little thought of what it is all about. Perhaps we could remember this as we approach December 25th once again.

I will readily admit that, as a Christian, my thoughts are somewhat biased. However, I cannot believe I am totally wrong and I hope you will give due consideration to all I have expressed above.

Going bump in the night

GHOSTS, ghouls and things that went bump in the night greeted visitors to Hallowe'en at the Nothe Fort in Weymouth.

Vampires met brave children looking to venture into ghost passages and there was always Professor Bumblebat wizard to do a few scary conjuring tricks.

Elsewhere craft areas let youngsters make ghost masks, scary faces, bats, skeletons and witches while a ghost walk tested everyone's courage to meet an undertaker and a witch.

There was also face painting and apple dunking and a chance to take part in a ghostly treasure hunt.

Fort spokesman Jane Chandler said: "We also had a fancy dress competition with a Hallowe'en theme and there were some very good witches, wizards and spectres.

"All proceeds from the event will go towards helping with the upkeep on the Fort and we would particularly like to thank Dennis Spurr of the Fantastic Sausage Factory for providing hot food."

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

Remember, remember the fifth of November

IT is November 5th on Tuesday, but there has already been a fair amount of gunpowder, treason and plot going on about Weymouth.

Barely a recent night has gone by without a volley of whiz-bang explosions or a drifting cloud of coloured twinkle stars in the sky.

Some people can't restrain their enthusiasm and feel the louder and more violent their celebrations then the better they will be.

I agree with this because the whole historical root of those celebrations is, after all, gunpowder.

Where I tend to become slightly less enthusiastic is when celebrations start nearly a month before the big day and often go on up to a week or more afterwards.

Perhaps this year will be different and the skies will fall silent on November 6th or, at worst, after the following weekend... but I wouldn't put money on it.

Put the meetings in your diary

I'M including this item in case anyone wants to pencil in a few diary dates so they don't miss forthcoming council meetings on proposals for Weymouth and Portland's 2014-2015 budget.

It is a quirk of human nature that the council will be lucky if two men and a dog turn up at meetings held in the early stages of this financial process.

Decisions to allocate millions of pounds and decide whether crucial services should be cut to save money don't seem to initially fire people's imagination particularly on a wet night, but mention that a council meeting is to debate dog walking curbs to cut fouling and you are lucky if you can get in the building never mind find a seat.

Such is human nature, but people had better consider getting their raincoats out and attending those finance meetings early to get their views across this year because Weymouth and Portland's budget has never been in such a precarious state.

Basically the Government's attitude to Weymouth and Portland in general and Dorset specifically is that it feels able to slash its support for the county with impunity.

Dorset gets among the worst financial support in the entire country, leaving the county council a harder and harder task to try and balance the books and Weymouth and Portland the grim job of choosing where unpopular cuts must be made in the borough so its budget is spent where it will do the most good.

So show a bit of support and take the trouble to attend at least one of these crucial meetings so you keep abreast of just what could be heading your way. We are all in this together.

Please keep the news coming in

IN a recent column I revealed that I'd had a template biopsy for prostate cancer and was waiting for the results.

Unfortunately those results have confirmed that I do have prostate cancer, but there is still a lot of good luck involved with the test which has revealed it is the least aggressive form of cancer and only in a small area.

Because of that the consultant I have since seen said all options were fortunately still available and he heartily approved of my choice of going for a major operation at a specialist unit in Berkshire to have my entire prostate taken out to hopefully remove any future threat of cancer from this source.

Naturally all this will force me to keep a lower than usual profile for several weeks after the operation, so please help me by keeping press releases and stories coming to my email address at hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk.

Give me a fortnight and you might even drop in at my home with a story for a chat because my mobility will be pretty limited for the first few weeks after release from hospital.

Hopefully I will get back to normal – or as near normal as I've ever been – as soon as possible.

Drivers are helping to 'Keep Portland Weird'

SOMETIMES motorists have to cope with unusual and unexpected hazards.

So it was recently on Portland when drivers leaving Fortuneswell came round the corner by the town council offices only to find that the road had completely disappeared in a wall of smoke.

I idly wondered how long it would take a fire engine to get there as I watched the car in front of me totally disappear from sight into the smoke before I engaged first gear and gingerly edged into the grey cloud myself.

It dissipated after a few seconds and, as I got my bearings, I quickly realised there was no fire.

Instead a car about 50 metres ahead was belching out clouds of smoke from its exhaust in the worst example of its type I have ever seen.

Within a short distance motorists had to negotiate a smaller cloud of smoke and it was clear the car concerned was not long for this world because there couldn't have been much oil left in the engine!

Such incidents are rare, but amazingly the driver didn't stop and switch his engine off but continued on regardless, presumably not caring what he was doing because it was totally impossible to be unaware of the "fogbank" he was leaving behind him. No wonder there are stickers saying: "Keep Portland Weird".

Musical premiere Police launch recruitment campaign

DORCHESTER Community Plays Association is inviting people to the premiere of new musical, Tyneham, at Weymouth College.

The opening night at The Bay Theatre will be tonight (Wednesday, October 30th).

Production team secretary Jane Jones said: "It has been 18 months in the making.

The story and lyrics have been written by local historian and author Vince Jones and the stunning music is completely original and by a very talented local musician Jordan Clarke, a 17-year-old genius who has been likened to Stephen Sondheim."

Jordan showed his phenomenal talent early at the age of just 15 when, as a pupil at All Saints School in Weymouth, he wrote an entire musical, "Andrew", for his school.

Jane said: "The story of Tyneham is based around the evacuation of the village to make way for the army in 1943. It is a rich mix of love, humour, hope and the frailties of human relationships.

"Such is the acclaim of the musical thus far that it has attracted the attention of a local benefactor who has donated a substantial amount of money to ensure a high quality production.

"There is a website where people can access regularly updated excerpts of the music, radio interviews with the writers and photos of the cast and much more including tickets at www.tynehamthemusical.com.

"It promises to be a superb show and I hope that many of you will be able to support this exciting, new venture."

DORSET Police has begun a recruitment drive for new police constables – the first external campaign in four years.

The campaign is expected to attract significant interest and marks the first time new police officers have been invited to join the Dorset Police team since September 2009.

The force wishes to recruit an intake of 12–16 new officers in 2014/15 and has plans for a further 12–16 officers in 2015/16. The campaign will initially launch to existing staff, before being rolled out to the general public today, (Wednesday, October 30th).

■ DAVID Humphreys (left) talks about the stand with Kingston Maurward marketing co-ordinator Thomas Reynolds

A STAND has been displayed in Weymouth to promote a new school in Dorchester.

The event in Lower Bond Street formed part of a roadshow which is travelling round Dorset.

The new Dorset Studio School at Kingston Maurward College promotes both academic and vocational education underpinned by an ethos of employability and enterprise skills.

GCSE courses will be in English, Maths, Science and ICT while vocational courses will be in environmental, conservation and land based studies.

KMC assistant principal David Humphreys said the school's main sponsors were the college and Thomas Hardy School in Dorchester – which will deliver the relevant academic qualifications – and local employers which will provide valuable employability skills and training.

He added: "The stand in Weymouth allowed people to look at an alternative curriculum for their children which will offer a programme of study at Key Stage 4 that will be highly engaging and hopefully lead to positive employment outcomes."

Dorset Police is expecting a high level of interest and in order to cope with the expected demand, an online pre-assessment selection tool will be available.

Chief Constable Debbie Simpson said: "I'd encourage anyone who is interested in this extremely rewarding role to visit our website and find out more – it is a fantastic opportunity to join the Dorset Police team and make a difference.

"The force is committed to selecting the best possible candidates and will ensure that the selection process is fair throughout.

"It is likely that we will receive significant interest and increased traffic through our website. I would like to remind everyone not to rush to get online – the pre-assessment tool will be available for a whole week from Wednesday, October 30th and users will likely find the process more efficient if they wait some time before starting their application."

Police and Crime Commissioner, Martyn Underhill, said: "Dorset police officers operate at the heart of the community, ensuring safety and security to those who work, live and visit the county.

"Despite operating in austere times we have to balance the workforce. It is right that we bring new officers into the policing family. We are striving to provide a more visible force, with an emphasis on neighbourhood policing.

"Until my election, the recruitment of police constables was frozen indefinitely. The new chief constable and I reversed the decision.

"A police officer's role is about more than working to reduce crime. It is now just as much about reducing the fear of crime, working in partnership with communities to make a real difference and improve quality of life for everyone.

"Forging close relationships, building trust and understanding the issues within Dorset's different communities all form part of the fundamental platform on which effective, credible policing is built.

"As a result, we must continue to recruit the right people from every background and use the full spectrum of their skills, knowledge and experience to make Dorset safer for everybody."

A brochure has been made available on the force website for anyone interested in becoming a police officer.

Tourism industry honoured at awards ceremony

IT was an emotional and ground-breaking evening on Thursday of last week as Dorset celebrated its best at the inaugural Dorset Tourism Awards ceremony, held at The Tank Museum, Bovington.

The evening saw 39 awards presented to winners from across the county, with several multiple winners including the Eastbury Hotel in Sherborne, National Trust Brownsea Island, The Inn at Cranborne and Bridge House Hotel in Beaminster.

West Dorset Leisure Holidays also shone out as Gold winner in two categories, with its Managing Director, Martin Cox, receiving a special award for Outstanding Contribution to Tourism.

The Dorset Tourism Awards were launched in June this year, following extensive liaison between their founder, Robin Barker, and local tourism leaders.

Robin was both proud and excited at the awards event, and said: "Dorset offers something special, yet for various reasons has not always punched its weight as a top destination – that's why some 10 months ago my colleagues and I started liaising with the industry here in Dorset to assess the demand for your own Dorset Tourism Awards. The response we had surprised us all."

The awards attracted 60 entries in 12 different categories, each undergoing a rigorous three-stage judging process comprising initial scoring, visits by a team of mystery shoppers and final assessment by an independent judging panel.

Chair of the panel, Professor Peter Jones said: "I was delighted to act as chair of the judging for the Dorset Tourism Awards and very impressed with the quality of the submissions. We have excellent tourism businesses in Dorset and to be involved in recognising them in this way has been a privilege and a pleasure."

A capacity audience of 160 guests enjoyed the awards ceremony, which was hosted in the Tamiya Hall in the heart of the Tank Museum, surrounded by an array of tanks.

Andrew Alder, partner of event sponsors Saffery Champness, said: "We are delighted that tonight's dinner at the Tank Museum is a sell-out. The support from entrants and other local organisations for this, the inaugural year of the awards, has been amazing and as part of the celebrations, we have decided to present a further special award this evening for the most entrepreneurial business."

Successful businesses in the Dorset Awards will now be fast tracked into the South West Tourism Excellence Awards in January 2014 and then possibly on to the National Visit England Awards later in 2014.

Footballer's friends complete charity challenge

FRIENDS of a promising young footballer who was struck down by sepsis in his mid-twenties have walked from Dorchester to Weymouth and back again to raise money to fund research into the condition. In windy and rainy conditions on Saturday, the sixteen took part in a series of challenges on their journey and are likely to raise around £2,000 from their efforts. The challenges were set by Kyle Critchell who, just three-months-ago, was fighting to save his own life.

Unable to make the walk because of his condition he read out the challenges on a tablet computer brought along by organiser and close friend Regan Coward (23), a former Magpies keeper and now a fitness instructor.

Regan and three others each wore 14kg weight vests during the challenge – just to make it a little more difficult.

Kyle Critchell, 26, played alongside Garteh Bale when Saints won the Premier League academy title in 2006 and was also part of the same youth team as Theo Walcott.

The Wales Under-21 and Under-17 international went on to play for Torquay, Chesterfield, Wrexham, York, Dorchester and Weymouth, where he was playing when sepsis struck.

The condition arises when the body's response to an infection injures its own tissues and organs.

It leads to shock, multiple organ failure and potentially death, especially if not recognised early and treated promptly. It claims over 37,000 lives in the United Kingdom every year.

"I had a slight problem with my back, for the next two weeks I was bed-bound.

"I saw lots of doctors and took lots of pain relief. Eventually I got rushed into hospital as an emergency at Dorset County Hospital," said Kyle.

For five weeks he was in so much pain he could hardly bear to open his eyes, but eventually antibiotics were found which worked and saved his life.

He has now largely recovered from the illness and will start work at Dorchester Middle School.

■ THE walkers pause for a photo prior to setting out on their walk to Weymouth and back

'Be bright, be seen' this winter

CYCLISTS are being urged to "be bright and be seen" after turning the clocks back last weekend.

Dorset County Council Cabinet member for environment Hilary Cox said: "Cyclists must do all they can to be safe on Dorset's roads, by making sure their bike is fitted with lights and they are more noticeable as the nights draw in."

As part of the drive to decrease cycle casualties, Dorset Road Safe is launching a bike light initiative. From November, traffic officers will be issuing a set of front and rear lights to all young people they spot without them.

Advice to cyclists include making sure that front and rear lights are working well, are clean and bright; adding reflective material to pedals and spokes for extra visibility and for riders to wear something fluorescent to be seen during the day and reflective clothing to be seen at night.

For more information about cycle safety and cycle training go to: <http://www.dorsetforyou.com/travel-dorset/cycle/cycle-safety>

Youngsters impress with photograph competition entries

PHOTOGRAPHS and poems have been submitted by students from across Dorset and East Devon for the Capturing My Coast competition.

Each student has also described what they do to help keep the coast and sea Litter Free showing how much they value the Jurassic Coast.

The winning entry was a poem entitled "Sunsets and Storms" written by Carolanne Rogers, aged 16 from Bournemouth and Poole College. Matt Harvey, humourist, performance poet and one of the competition judges, said: "A beautiful poem vividly capturing the beauty of the setting sun, a majestic moonscape and the drama of an electric storm. If a picture paints a thousand words this is a 3,000 word poem."

Competition organiser and Litter Free Coast and Sea Campaign Coordinator Matilda Bark, who is based in Dorchester congratulated all of the students that have entered.

She said: "It is clear that young people in Dorset and East Devon are not only very talented at writing poetry and taking photographs but that they also take great pride in their coast."

As many of the competition entries as possible have been collated into an exhibition at Bournemouth Pier for six months.

Litter Free Coast and Sea is a local ongoing campaign to reduce the social, economic and environmental impacts of marine and beach litter, and improve and maintain bathing water quality along the Dorset and East Devon coast by stopping litter getting to the coast and sea in the first place. It is supported and promoted by more than 500 local organisations and individuals up and down the coast.

EDDI READER ALSO COMES TO BRIDPORT

EDDI Reader was brought into the limelight with Fairground Attraction and their single 'Perfect' and parent album First of a Million Kisses which both topped the British charts. However, it has been her subsequent solo albums which signalled her increasing ability to assimilate different musical styles and make them all very much her own. From the traditional to the contemporary, Eddi brings to joyous life all forms of song and what sets Reader apart is the depth and quality of the emotional performance; her ability not only to move the listener but to connect her experience to that of her audience. Her rare blend of meltingly true vocals and towering romanticism combine with an astute and pragmatic nature to make her a unique and powerful figure in contemporary British music. She has effortlessly developed into one of popular music's most thrilling and affecting performers.

Eddi performs at the Electric Palace on Tuesday, November 5th from 7.30pm. Doors open 7pm. Tickets cost £21 in advance, and can be purchased from the box office online at www.electricpalace.org.uk or by calling 01308 424901.

NEW PLAY BY LOCAL AUTHOR

A compelling story of an episode in the life of William Blake

BRIDPORT'S award-winning theatre club, Encore, perform a play written by local solicitor and member, John Pownall, in the Marlowe Theatre at the Bridport Arts Centre, from Tuesday 19th through to Saturday, November 23rd. Performances start at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £8 on Tuesday and £9 for Wednesday to Saturday. Students and under 16s are half-price.

The play is a fiction based on actual events. William Blake, an otherwise lifelong Londoner, relocates to a village in Sussex. He seeks peace and quiet to do his work as a poet and printer but fate serves him up trouble in the form of a drunken soldier!

William Blake wrote the immortal words "And did those feet in ancient time. Walk upon Englands mountains green" in a short poem which were set to music in 1916 and we sing to this day as the anthem "Jerusalem".

Declan Duffy plays the main role of William Blake with his devoted wife Catherine played by Mel Draper, accompanied by a large cast of familiar talent.

Come and support your local theatre club. Tickets available from the Bridport Arts Centre Box Office 01308 424204

Babylon morris team looking for new members

BABYLON are a morris team who have been based in Corscombe for nearly twenty years. Unlike most morris, their dances were traditionally performed in the winter. To reflect this custom, they have danced on every New Year's Day in Beaminster and the surrounding villages since 1996. This year, Babylon are offering you the opportunity to join them!

Starting on November 20th and running up to Christmas we will be holding free sessions every Wednesday in Corscombe Village Hall, DT2 0NU, teaching the dances. And then, come New Year's Day, you'll be dancing in public with the team!

Babylon's dances, although effective to look at, are comparatively simple and they are sure that most people who attend the set of evenings will be able to reach an appropriate standard by the New Year.

Come along and give it a go!

Big season of screenings continues at The Gateway

NATIONAL Theatre Live's 2010 broadcast of Alan Bennett's acclaimed play The Habit of Art, with Richard Griffiths and Alex Jennings, returns to screens as part of the National Theatre's 50th anniversary celebrations.

Bennett's play is as much about the theatre as it is about poetry or music. It looks at the unsettling desires of two difficult men, and at the ethics of biography. It reflects on growing old, on creativity and inspiration, and on persisting when all passion's spent: ultimately, on the habit of art.

A superbly fluid production by Nicholas Hytner and beautifully acted.

Bennett the maestro returns with a multi-layered masterpiece. Another absolute cracker, often wonderfully and sometimes filthily funny, but also deeply and unexpectedly moving.

The Habit of Art will be screened at Seaton Gateway at the Town Hall on Thursday, November 7th, doors open 6pm with the show from 7pm. Tickets cost £12.50 in advance, £15.00 on the door.

Tosca tells the story of the love between the famous opera singer Floria Tosca and the painter and political activist Mario Cavaradossi. Cavaradossi sends the political escapee and former Roman Consul-General, Cesare Angelotti, to hide down the well in his garden.

The evil Baron Scarpia is determined to have Tosca for himself, and invites her to supper in order to discover the whereabouts of Angelotti. He orders the torture of Cavaradossi in her earshot.

Unable to bear his screams of pain, Tosca willingly gives up the information but not before she has persuaded Scarpia to allow her and her lover to escape from Rome.

He insists that to satisfy the authorities, Cavaradossi must undergo a mock execution, and arranges this with one of his henchmen, Spoletta. He then provides Tosca with a note of safe-conduct for her and her lover.

As Scarpia attempts to ravish Tosca, she stabs him. Before his body is discovered, she rushes to the prison in the Castel Sant'Angelo to tell Cavaradossi that he has to face the firing squad, that the muskets will contain blanks, and he will have to act his death.

But Scarpia has tricked Tosca - the bullets are real! As Cavaradossi lies dead and Scarpia's henchmen approach, Tosca is left with no alternative and takes her own life.

Puccini's timeless verismo score is well served by two exceptional casts. Patricia Racette and Sondra Radvanovsky share the title role of the jealous diva, opposite two leading tenors Roberto Alagna and Marcello Giordani. George Gagnidze is the villainous Scarpia.

Puccini's Tosca will be screened at Seaton Gateway on Saturday, November 9th, doors open 5pm for 6pm performance. Tickets cost £15 in advance £17.50 on the door.

Richard II will also be streamed live by satellite to the Gateway big screen from the Royal Shakespeare Company in Stratford upon Avon.

Richard is King. A monarch ordained by God to lead his people. But he is also a man of very human weakness. A man whose vanity threatens to divide the great houses of England and drag his people into a dynastic civil war that will last 100 years. RSC Artistic Director Gregory Doran directs David Tennant in the title role.

Richard II is the first production in a new cycle of Shakespeare's History plays, directed by Gregory, that will be performed over the coming seasons.

David is joined in the company by Oliver Ford Davies, who also appeared with him in the acclaimed 2008 Hamlet.

Richard II will be screened at the Gateway on Wednesday, November 13th, doors open 6pm, show from 7pm. Tickets cost £12.50 in advance and £15.00 on the door.

Tickets for all show are available from the Town Hall Box Office or by calling 01297 625699.

A licensed bar will be in operation for each performance.

Christmas Market to celebrate the completion of major renovations to Manor Yard!

SYMONDSBURY Estate are holding a Christmas Market at Manor Yard on Thursday, November 28th from 2pm until 8pm. Over 60 stalls will be offering a fabulous array of Christmas Gifts, Local Produce, Cakes, Hand made Chocolates, Jewellery, Roasted Chestnuts along with Santa's Grotto and local Carol Singers. The opening of our new café "Symondsburys Kitchen" will coincide with the Christmas Market.

Just over two years ago Manor Yard was a somewhat dishevelled Grade II listed 18th Century stables and barn in the centre of the village of Symondsburys. Now after major renovation it has been transformed into a stunning and magical venue along with a café. We welcome everybody to come and join us at the first Christmas Market, which promises to be a day to remember!

Manor Yard is set to be the hub of the village and along with the Tithe Barn will provide a unique and charming venue for all occasions including markets, fairs, exhibitions, weddings, corporate and local community events. One of the out-houses has been renovated into a café. The Christmas Market will double up as the opening of "Symondsburys Kitchen" where we will offer delicious home cooked meals, cakes and refreshments. The main menu and a separate festive season menu will be released within the next week or so.

"We are very excited to be at the stage of planning our first market at Manor Yard. We look forward to welcoming everybody and sharing what will undoubtedly be an amazing day in the most stunning venue!" says Julia Butcher,

Marketing Manager of Symondsburys Estate. "We are striving to renovate, make use and share with others some of the fabulous properties that make up the estate."

Symondsburys Estate has been in the Colfox family for over 150 years. Its 1500 acres is made up of farmland, ancient woodland, residential and commercial property. In addition to this 8 carefully selected properties have been renovated to provide luxurious holiday accommodation.

Dorset County Museum opens new exhibition

A NEW exhibition opens at Dorset County Museum this Saturday, November 2nd. 'The Heart That Fed' features the work of two Dorset artists – Nell Race and Angelika Seik. Both have spent long careers exploring their art and have been exhibiting separately for over 30 years. This is their first joint exhibition.

Nell Race's pictures are non-figurative – they are not pictures of castles and beaches, but they do hold oblique and subtle references to the Dorset environment in which she lives and works. The paintings express the feelings and emotions which the Purbeck hills, rocks and cliffs evoke and all are integrated into her work.

Dorset has also influenced Angelika in many ways. She gets her stone direct from Dorset quarries, and moved to the area to be near them. Angelika loves the sea and many of her works relate to it, for example Time & Tide. She is fascinated by the interconnections between the sea, the land, the people who live there and their shared history.

"We're looking forward to the exhibition opening," said Museum Director Jon Murden. "Both artists have a strong local following and we expect a lot of interest. It's also a good time for people coming to the Museum to have a browse in the gift shop and enjoy our popular tea room."

The Heart that Fed opens at Dorset County Museum on Saturday, November 2nd and runs until February 1st. Entry to the exhibition is free and many of the pieces are for sale. For more information check the website on www.dorsetcountymuseum.org.

The Return of the BIG BAC Quiz!

PUT your thinking caps on and enjoy a night out for a good cause; this Friday (November 1st), 7.30pm Bridport Arts Centre is hosting a quiz night with all proceeds going to essential building repairs.

Teams of up to six people can compete for prizes and have a great night out for £5 per head. Polly Gifford, Bridport Arts Centre's Director will be the quiz master, assisted by Jonty Grey.

Members of the Arts Centre team have set the questions and categories include food, popular culture and history.

General Manager, Dee Fenton said "Our past quizzes have been really lively and a fun way of raising money. With great company and a plate of roast potatoes on each table you can't go wrong!"

Dorchester Choral Society Concert

DORCHESTER Choral Society will perform a major work of the world-popular British composer John Rutter, 'Magnificat'.

Our premier living composer's work is joined by others from the 20th Century – Benjamin Britten's Jubilate Deo and his Festival Te Deum, with Aaron Copland's In the Beginning.

Director Christine Page highlights Rutter's Magnificat for its varied moods – lyrical and dynamic by turn.

The Choral Society is delighted to be joined by Dorset-based professional soprano Abbi Temple who will sing settings of Shakespeare's songs from the Tempest. Concert organist Graham Scott will play two exciting pieces, by Copland and Kenneth Leighton.

The concert takes place at St Mary's Church on Saturday, November 30th at 7.30pm. Tickets are available from November 9th, from Harmony Music (Dorchester), or from DCS Box Office, 1 Pitcote Lane, Poundbury (DT1 3GH – please send a cheque and SAE), costing £15 reserved, £12 unreserved.

Halloween Screening of cult classic

FW MURNAU'S horror – and the world's first vampire film is back to terrify audiences once again. 'Nosferatu' will be screened on October 31st at Bridport Arts Centre at 7.30pm.

One of the earliest film adaptations of Dracula, Nosferatu, survived a court ruling that it should be destroyed to re-emerge in the 1960s as a cult classic.

Now recognised as a cinematically innovative masterpiece, the film combines Gothic elements with (what were) advanced special effects, embodying the transition of art film from German Romanticism to Expressionism.

With Max Schreck in the role of the flesh-crawling Count Orlok, it spawned a legion of other horror movies – prepare for the stuff of nightmares!

Tickets are £6/5/4 from 01308 424204, www.bridport-arts.com or on the door.

The WOW Show

WOW Youth Musical Theatre, whose members ages range from 10 - 18, have been rehearsing since April for their forthcoming production at the Pavilion Theatre, Weymouth.

The show is aptly named 'The WOW Show' and is a compilation of musical theatre shows, classical music and some popular music as well. In other words there is something for everyone.

The all singing, all dancing show is being choreographed and directed by former WOW member Martine Winterburn, now a professional director/choreographer and voice coach.

Martine has put many hours into the choreography of 28 full company numbers and the cast have been rehearsing flat out learning the routines since the beginning of September.

Prior to the Summer break in July Heather Reed, WOW musical director, and chorus master Janet Stockley, have been rehearsing the music, which involves some amazing harmony arrangements of well known musical theatre numbers. Some of the music has come from an American sheet music company, as they were not available in this country. Becky Wells completes The WOW production team as rehearsal assistant.

For some of the cast this will be their first production with WOW. In order to give every member the chance to shine, the cast has been split into two age groups for some of the sections. However, there will still be the big production numbers that the audience will expect from a WOW show, add to this some stunning solos and group work, and we have the ingredients for a very exciting show by these talented local youngsters.

Heather Reed will be in the orchestra pit leading a small group of professional musicians which gives the cast great support.

The programme consists of selections from 9 to 5, Sunset Boulevard, an Irving Berlin Medley, Matilda, Chicago, a Classical Selection' opens the second Act, followed by a Beyonce Medley, and finally a tribute to the West End and Broadway with songs from Oklahoma, Kiss Me Kate, Cabaret, Sweet Charity, Blood Brothers, Gypsy, and Wicked. In other words 'something for everyone!'

One of the highlights is expected to come from five boys in the cast singing the close harmony songs made popular by the 'Overtones', and the Theatre are dubbing them the 'WOWtones'.

WOW Youth Musical Theatre is pleased to be performing again at the Pavilion Theatre, following months of uncertainty. Members say it has been great working with Phil and Lou Say, who have been very helpful and full of enthusiasm to give a great show.

Proposed productions for 2014 include 'Grease' in April and 'Sister Act' in November.

Book your tickets now at the Pavilion Theatre Box Office 01305 783225 or online at www.weymouthpavilion.co.uk The tickets are £14.00 for Adults with Seniors/Children £11.00 on Thursday evening and Saturday matinee.

The Pavilion staff will also be pleased to book you a pre-show meal in the upstairs 'Piano Bar' so that you can make an evening of it.

New Suzuki SX4 S-Cross receives 5-star Euro NCAP overall safety rating

THE SX4 S-Cross has been rated one of Europe's safest cars, according to new independent crash testing results from Euro NCAP, receiving the maximum 5-star rating.

Suzuki's new C-segment crossover has been highly rated among the 5-star vehicles tested by Euro NCAP in 2013, achieving an above-average overall result. The SX4 S-Cross performed notably well on its pedestrian protection, the top-class rating in total score for newly adopted test methodology that took effect this year.

Euro NCAP now releases one overall star rating with a maximum of five stars. The number of stars reflects how well a vehicle performs in all four areas: adult protection, child safety, pedestrian protection and safety assist.

The body structure and occupant restraint systems on the SX4 S-Cross are developed to meet current and anticipated crash safety standards, offering optimal protection in real life situations.

The new SX4 S-Cross features Suzuki's Total Effective Control Technology (TECT) concept for occupant-protecting impact absorption and low weight. Extensive use of high tensile steel for key parts helps to keep the body light and enhances the vehicle's crashworthiness substantially.

The new SX4 S-Cross's body incorporates a large proportion of high-tensile steel for strength and lightness. The stiff mountings of the front struts and suspension frame provide greater handling stability. A high-rigidity body is fundamental to handling, comfort, safety, NVH performance and every other aspect of a car's behaviour.

Suzuki ensures best possible safety on the new SX4 S-Cross by synchronising active and passive systems.

Active safety equipment includes a speed limiter, which prevents the car from exceeding a driver-set speed, ESP®, which promotes stability; and seatbelt reminder for all seats.

Passive safety equipment on the SX4 S-Cross starts with seven airbags, which offer protection in the event of frontal, lateral or rear impact; seatbelt pre-tensioners and force limiters. The seat and head restraint provide good protection against whiplash injury in the event of a rear-end collision. In addition, bonnet shape and new structures for the cowl top, wipers and bumpers provide impact absorption which lessens the degree of harm if the car comes into contact with a pedestrian.

SX4 S-Cross is on sale in the UK now from £14,999, and is also offered through the Motability scheme from £399 Advanced Payment with a CVT gearbox available.

Happy Birthday to Q: Lanehouse Bridport hosts celebratory sales event

THIS month marks yet another anniversary for Network Q, Vauxhall's award-winning used car programme, and to celebrate, Lanehouse Bridport is hosting a special Birthday Sale Event.

Between Saturday 26th October and Monday 4th November, the retailer is inviting local motorists to join in the celebrations at the dealership on Shoe Lane, whereby all customers who purchase a Network Q vehicle will drive away with a £500 cash gift*.

Dominic Avery, Company Director at Lanehouse Bridport, comments: "We are excited to be hosting this celebratory birthday event. Network Q is one of the most thorough and reliable used car programmes ever developed and offers customers purchasing a used Vauxhall vehicle complete peace of mind."

"We hope to welcome many members of our local community into our showroom during the sale - it promises to offer a great party-like feel and we look forward to showcasing our range of Network Q vehicles, as well as reminding motorists of the advantages of buying a used Vauxhall within the Network Q programme."

Quality and reassurance as standard

Network Q customers at Lanehouse Bridport can enjoy a comprehensive package of benefits designed to take all the worry out of buying a quality used Vauxhall.

Thanks to the rigorous Network Q Multi-Point Check carried out by the retailer's team of highly-trained Vauxhall technicians, drivers can be confident that they are taking to the road with the same level of reassurance they'd get from buying a new Vauxhall.

The Multi-Point Check examines every major mechanical component and technicians will undertake all vital safety and security checks and perform a thorough test drive, as well as inspecting interior and exterior features. In addition, all Network Q vehicles come with an Ownership Promise which covers features such as mileage and vehicle history, ensuring that customers know exactly what they are getting, without any hidden surprises.

Offering even greater reassurance, a 30 day exchange is available, ensuring that if a car develops a mechanical or electrical fault in the first 30 days of ownership that cannot be repaired to a satisfactory standard, Lanehouse Bridport will exchange it for a Network Q vehicle of equal value. Plus, to make taking to the road even easier, every Network Q vehicle comes with 5 days' free insurance, as standard, so customers at the retailer can buy their chosen vehicle and drive it home on the same day.

Dominic Avery adds: "Delivering high-quality customer care is incredibly important to us, and whilst we're confident that each of our Network Q customers will be happy with their used car purchase, we are always keen to go the extra mile to ensure everyone drives away fully satisfied."

Selected Network Q Vauxhall passenger cars less than 12 months old and with fewer than 30,000 miles also now come with a Network Q 3-year warranty, whilst customers who purchase a Network Q vehicle under 7 years old with less than 70,000 miles, have the option to purchase a warranty of up to 60 months, offering additional assurance.

The Network Q Birthday Sale Event starts Saturday 26th October and ends Monday 4th November 2013. To discover more about Lanehouse Bridport's range of Vauxhall Network Q used vehicles and for additional details about the Birthday Sale Event, please visit the retailer at St Andrews Industrial Estate, Shoe Lane, Bridport, Dorset DT6 3EX. Alternatively, call 01308 458018 or go online to www.lanehousegroup.co.uk.

For information about Vauxhall's Network Q used car programme, please visit www.networkq.co.uk.

*£500 cash gift available on eligible Network Q vehicles purchased during the event period only. A cash gift of up to £500 may be available on other used vehicles and is subject to retailer discretion.

Williams helps himself to hat-trick in Glovers stroll

WITH STUART BROOM

DORCHESTER TOWN XI 0 YEovil TOWN XI 6

Friendly - Tuesday, October 22nd

YEOVIL Town easily overcame a Dorchester Town side looking to give their younger players game experience in this friendly arranged as part of the deal that saw Kieffer Moore move from the Avenue to Huish Park in the summer.

Yeovil, eager to give their fringe players competitive action, played eight players who have had Championship experience this season.

Meanwhile, Dorchester manager Phil Simkin rested some of his more established players in order to assess the young new signings made recently to replace experienced players released due to the 60 per cent playing budget cuts made by the Community Trust.

Yeovil took the lead inside 70 seconds, Joel Grant sidefooting home Seth Twumasi's cross before Dan Green was forced off with a recurrence of his hamstring injury after five minutes.

As expected the Glovers were virtually camped in the Dorchester half, creating at least ten first-half chances, the nearest just before the break when Paddy Madden's quick turn and curling shot from the angle of the penalty area struck the far angle of Alan Walker-Harris' crossbar with the keeper well beaten.

Dorchester on the other hand had two sights on goal, but in both cases Jamie Beasley failed with headers; the first a weak header from Nick Crittenden's cross and the second heading up and over from Neil Martin's good run and cross.

The second-half followed much the same pattern with Moore, hoping to show the home crowd his progress with a goal, having a header tipped over the top by Walker-Harris from Tsumani's cross just 55 seconds in.

The Magpies' keeper then denied Liam Fontaine twice from Liam Davis' cross on two minutes.

However, on 56 minutes he could do nothing about Andy Williams' thunderous angled volley before Madden beat him from the penalty spot after Jake Smeeton had tripped Joey Jones.

Walker-Harris continued to deny the Glovers whose shooting was much more accurate this half, but on 73 minutes Yeovil's keeper Chris Dunn was forced into his only real save of the night.

Within seconds of coming on, sub Conor Jevons played a delightful ball beyond Luke Ayling and into the path of Martin who moved forward before unleashing a thunderous 15-yard shot that Dunn beat away.

Sam Foley, back in action following a breathing problem suffered against Exeter City in a friendly, added the fourth when he shrugged off some weak tackling to drive a shot from the edge of the box beyond Walker-Harris.

He immediately gave way to Harry Reynolds whose first job was to pick the ball out of the net when Williams fired home after Tony Rolls' attempted clearance fell at his feet.

The former Swindon striker completed his hat-trick two minutes from the end when Craig Michie missed his header and Williams blasted home on the half volley. Moore desperate to score after missing a couple of early opportunities had two late close range chances, but failed to beat Reynolds.

County town boss Simkin said: "It was a really good work out; they brought a really strong side.

"We were determined to get all the young lads on the pitch for some game experience and I thought we did okay in the first-half and stayed with them, but when we started to make the changes it started to fall apart a bit.

"You have to take as much advantage of these types of games as you can. It will make our lads fitter and sharper, and the younger lads got a very good experience, and you can't buy that."

Scrum-down - rugby round-up

Fry on form as new look Dorchester 2nds breeze past Frome

FROME 3RDS 12 DORCHESTER 2NDS 26 DESPITE missing 10 players from their last game and opting to play uphill and against the wind, Dorchester started brightly.

They opened the scoring when Russ Trent put in outside centre Jake Murdoch who scored under the posts. Full Back Luke Read stepped up and slotted the extras.

The last 10 minutes of the half saw Dorchester score two further tries. Number 8 Hugh Vivian crashed over under the posts and centre Rich Deakin finished off a well worked move. Read converted both.

Going into the second half, the home side made a few changes and this seemed to make a difference as they dominated territory. However, some very solid defence kept them out - twice they were held up over the line.

After soaking up all the pressure Dorchester scored a bonus point fourth try through Kieran Fry.

After this Frome did manage two tries of their own. Although Dorchester were slightly disappointed with the finish to the game, they could be proud of how hard they worked throughout.

Man of the match: Kieran Fry.

Dorch girls make good impression

SIX Dorchester RFC girls, two of them making their first competitive debuts, took part in an Under 15 and U18 game involving North Dorset, Weymouth and Devonport teams.

U15's - North Dorset/Weymouth v Devonport/Dorchester

THREE girls, two making their debuts and the other playing in a new position to normal helped Devonport to victory over the combined North Dorset/Weymouth team.

All the players were determined to make an impression, and not only did they do themselves proud, but their coaches and club too.

Combining with a well-organised Devonport team, they settled down quickly and adapted to the conditions in what turned out to be a great contest.

The home side made the early inroads only for the away team to overturn an early lead and win the fixture.

U18s - North Dorset/Weymouth v Dorchester v Devonport

THREE U18 girls combined this time with the home side.

With two of them playing in unfamiliar positions, they adapted their skill set in what was poor conditions to give an impressive performance that was a credit to themselves, their coaches and the club.

However, an extremely strong and well drilled Devonport team were just too organised for them and whilst the home team never dropped their heads and played with great heart, it was the visitors who won what was another fantastic game of girls rugby.

DRFC would like to thank North Dorset, Weymouth and Devonport for combining with the girls, giving them the opportunity to play their first fixture of the season.

Despite the horrendous conditions both games were a great advertisement for female rugby.

If you live in Dorchester or on the outskirts and would like more information regarding playing female rugby, please do not hesitate in contacting, Nathan Parker: 07818 055 385 after 6pm.

Great start by Seasideers and Blues

Game 1: Weymouth U10 11 Bridport 3
Game 2: Weymouth U10 8 Bridport 4
WEYMOUTH U10's new season fired off with tremendous victories against a strong Bridport team.

Weymouth came out firing on all cylinders with Finley Wyatt scoring four tries in the first game.

Jacob Brunell won the player of the month for his outstanding tackling to hold the strong Bridport attack, helping Milli Berry, George Cartwright, Ben Kinsley and Xavier Hughes all to score.

This was a great start to the new season for Weymouth that showed lots of positives and a great example of teamwork and enjoyment throughout the highly motivated team.

Game 1 Weymouth U12 12 Bridport 0
Game 2 Weymouth U12 12 Bridport 12
A PERFECT start to the new season saw both teams indulging in the spirit of the game by playing flowing rugby.

In the first game the points all came in a first half that was dominated by Weymouth. Josh Radburn-Richards played in Sam Burton for the first try while Toby Diment-Aylott scored the second with Burton adding the conversion.

The second game was a much more even contest. Bridport scored first with an unconverted try. Burton replied following a three pass move Brodie Miller converting.

Bridport soon went over again with a conversion to regain the lead, but Weymouth were quickly in the ascendency and Diment-Aylott touched down.

The Louis Chappell employed some quick hands to start the move for Weymouth's last try.

Dorch U12s too powerful for Swans

DORCHESTER Rugby Club's Under 12's proved too strong for Swanage winning both games without conceding a try.

In the first game they scored eight tries through Ed Martin (3), Stefan Perry (2), Zack Southall (2) and Will Trimlin.

Squad: Joel Clarke, Patrick Taylor, Matthew Adshead, Taylor Moore, Ed Martin, Jack Hayward, John Stewart, Tao White, Joe Message, Stefan Perry, Ollie Tucker, Will Simpson, Nathan McNab, Tom Peach, Zack Southall, Freddie Marsden, Will Timlin, George Kent, Thomas Brookes, George Hutchings, Orlando Bailey, Will Adler, Rob Brake, Yihan Kershaw, Reece Vincent.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

Wimborne too slick for Blues

Wimborne 2nd 55 Bridport 0

BRIDPORT travelled to play Wimborne 2nd's and came up against a team that proved to be far fitter and more dynamic in their approach to the game, and although Bridport contested the scrums extremely well it was not enough to prevent a devastating defeat.

The game very much revolved around the ability of Wimborne to move the ball quickly between forwards and backs with superb handling, and at times the poor tackling and cover of the Bridport defence.

Playing against a strong wind, the opening ten minutes saw Bridport attack the Wimborne line with good tactical kicking from Rory Greening.

However, as a pre warning to the whole game, Wimborne countered quickly along their three quarters and with help of poor tackling scored in the corner against the run of play.

From the kick off Wimborne attacked immediately and although bundled into touch, scored again from the lineout for a converted try to go 12-0 up after 15 minutes

Bridport did well territorially during the remaining half, and although losing another try from a fast Wimborne three quarter line attack to go 17-0 down they nearly scored twice in response.

Will Hegarty broke through and with good support was only just denied a score and again good scrum ball saw Dave Cutting get within a metre of the line before just being tackled.

From the resulting scrum James Ewert, the Bridport man of the match, was again denied, being held up short of line.

With nothing to show for their efforts, Bridport were caught when Wimborne again countered following poor tackling and covering, and scored near posts to go in 24-0 up at half-time.

With wind behind them in second-half Bridport spent ten minutes on attack with Lee Burdett going close with a strong run down the wing and James Ewert at number 9 also constantly probing at the base of the scrum penetrating the Wimborne defence.

However as before, Bridport conceded another try from a counter attack and then after again going close following a Rory Greening break conceded two more in quick succession.

Although Bridport again had plenty of territory, too many handling mistakes and turnover ball allowed Wimborne to defend comfortably.

A resulting scrum again allowed Wimborne to counter and although defended well by the Blues again conceded a try from a quick tap penalty and poor covering cost another converted try.

With minutes left Wimborne found it easy to break through once more for a final score.

Although Bridport have a good squad, training under coach Ksissie Washington, they are suffering from a lack of three quarters making it necessary to play players out of position, and an inconsistent team playing each week.

However, the team showed great discipline and team spirit during the game which hopefully will go well for the rest of the season.

On Saturday the first team are home to Blandford, with the 2nds entertaining Crewkerne.

Bridport U15s 14 North Dorset 110

DESPITE the score line, the Bridport heads did not go down and at times did take the game to North Dorset side who were loaned players to make up their number.

A Bridport spokesman said: "Although both teams struggled for numbers, both sides played a great game of rugby in the true spirit of the game."

HOCKEY ROUND-UP

West Dorset go on goal spree

WEST Dorset Hockey Club's two sides went on a goal spree at the weekend, scoring 22 goals between them to lift the spirits after an indifferent start.

The first team scored seven against fellow South East 1 strugglers Yeovil & Sherborne B, whilst a strong A team crashed 15 against bottom side Sidmouth & Ottery E!

WEST DORSET 7

YEOVIL & SHERBORNE B 1

MIKE Bernstein made a magical debut for West Dorset, setting Rick Steele up for the first goal with his first touch, and then scoring twice with his second and third touches; his first goal a superb reverse stick shot.

The Colfox-based team desperately looking for some kind of consistent form this season totally dominated the game and added a fourth before the break with an amazing undercut shot from the corner of the D from James King.

Steele added his second after the break before the visitors scored a consolation from a short corner. However Bernstein went onto score a debut hat-trick before Steve Blake, another new player who scored on his debut last week, added the last.

Sidmouth & Ottery E 0 West Dorset A 15

SUCH is the strength of the West Dorset club that Alex Davies, who has only ever played in the first team, was included in a very strong A side that trounced their hapless hosts who are bottom of South East 3.

They like the first team have been looking for consistency and this morale-boosting win will certainly give them a lift. Nearly everyone joined in the scoring spree which shows they have the potential.

Experience counts as Beaminster are beaten

WIMBORNE WAYFARERS 4 BEAMINSTER 3

BEAMINSTER ladies hockey team travelled to Wimborne without a number of their more experienced players through injury and illness to play a Wayfarers side who appear to have strengthened in the two years since the two sides met with a number of older additions.

Beaminster started brightly in what was a scrappy game and took the lead through Phoebe Stewart who converted at the far post after Andrea Thomas' shot was saved.

But the hosts equalised five minutes later when the Beaminster defence were caught flatfooted on the halfway line and an attacker ran through to beat Lisa Condliffe.

However, Bella Foot restored their lead with a brilliant solo run down the left before cutting in and firing home from the angle of the .

But once again Wimborne hit back and after a period of prolonged pressure equalised a second time when they scrambled the ball home following a goalmouth meleé.

Beaminster's young side however would not lay down and scored again just before the break when Hannah Dale scored at the far post following a quick break.

However, Wimborne's experience showed in the second-half and despite a excellent display from centre back Gabby McNamee, they took more control of the game.

They equalised when the loose ball was flicked over Condliffe before she could fully recover after making a save.

The hosts took all three points with another goal 15 minutes from time when a short corner was hammered into the corner of the net.

BEAMINSTER: Condliffe, Simmonds, Davies, Littleproud, McNamee, Foot, Thomas, Campbell, Dale, Stewart, H Clarke.

Tinker Time and Somerset Lias impress

IT was a mixed week again for Bob Buckler's Henley stables with Tinker Time and Somerset Lias both running in high-class races.

Tinker Time was running his first race over hurdles in the Grade 2 totepool Mobile Persian War Novices' Hurdle (Grade 2) at Chepstow on Saturday and finished a creditable fifth; held up in the last pair he could not quicken as the pace increased.

Buckler said: "I was absolutely delighted with the run. This was a very hot race, and he was 7lb out of his handicap in a high grade race and couldn't quicken, but it was very encouraging."

Somerset Lias was also having his first race over hurdles in the Grey-stone Novices' Hurdle over 2m1f at Exeter where he finished 15 lengths down on the winner the Phillip Hobbs trained Horizontal Speed the evens favourite.

Buckler said: "He was badly hampered at the first when a horse ran across him which worried him being his first competitive hurdle.

"But Sam Jones took him wide to give him some daylight and he settled down to run a super race.

"He made a small mistake down the back straight but stayed on. He needs further and we will probably look for a 2m6f race for him next.

Mister Matt took on some top horses in the 2m totepool.com

Home Of King Size Pools Handicap Chase at Chepstow on Saturday and put in a brave performance despite coming home at the back of the field.

"He doesn't get quicker with age but he jumped well as he normally does, but couldn't quicken in ground that was heavier than he likes."

There was little to cheer Buckler in the running of Lady Oaksey, who while surviving beyond the first hurdle, unlike her debut, she eventually fell two from home.

Meanwhile, Redlynch Rock was pulled up at Wincanton on Sunday having never looked happy throughout.

Weymouth to host triathlon

WEYMOUTH has been chosen as the venue for a triathlon next September as part of a global brand of races named Challenge Family Triathlons.

Challenge UK announced last week that the event, which consists of a sea swim, bike ride through the Dorset countryside and a run through the town finishing on the Esplanade, will take place on Sunday, September 14th.

Besides both the long and half distance triathlon events there will be a new Challenge kids event, and according to Challenge Family CEO, Felix Walchshöfer, the new UK location was sure to prove popular with both British and international athletes with 900 athletes already having pre-registered.

Registration is now open for those that have pre-registered together with general entries.

More information about the event can be found on www.challengeweymouth.com or by following the team on twitter (@challengeuk), and on facebook, (challengeuk).

Cup win sees Bridport back to winning ways

MELKSHAM TOWN 0 BRIDPORT 2

Les Phillips Cup Preliminary Round - att: 85
TWO late goals gave Bridport a deserved victory at The Conigre on Saturday in the Preliminary Round of the Les Phillips Cup.

After a run of five matches without a victory, the Bees got back to winning ways with goals from Darren Watts and an own goal to set up a first round tie at Chard Town on December 4th.

With only one striker, Ryan Dovell available, Senior gave a recent signing Mark Scott his first start in a 5-4-1 formation.

Bridport started brightly and had two claims for penalties, both for handball, turned down in the first ten minutes and Matt Condliffe was thwarted by 'keeper Tom Drewitt.

But then they seemed to go off the boil, and Melksham began to get into the game. Ryan Hayter had to clear a shot off the line before Sam Filkins was called into produce a good save from Dan Kovaks on 35 minutes. Three minutes later Gary Higdon beat the 'keeper but his shot struck the upright.

Bridport reassessed themselves just before the break and Darren Watts went close with an angled shot with the outside of his boot that just cleared the bar, before Chris Senior had a goal bound header from a corner blocked.

Bridport came out with renewed zest in the second-half having received manager Trevor Senior's pep talk.

They assumed almost total control with both Matt Morley and Condliffe causing problems down the flanks being well supported by Chris Clarke and Senior, allowing Watts and Dan Wise to come more into the game.

Bridport were amazed when Dovell had a goal ruled out for offside despite Condliffe having run to the byline before pulling the ball back.

Watts then saw his header tipped over by Drewitt, before Condliffe brought another good save from the gloveman who pushed his left foot shot for a corner.

Bridport took the lead on 78 minutes with a good team goal that started on the left in defence with Clarke and ended with Senior sliding the ball through the visiting defence to Watts on the angle of the box who took one touch before firing a low shot into the far corner.

Morley, who caused problems until the end, ran down the line beating a couple of defenders before dribbling along the byline and firing in a cross to the near post where Ian Jeffrey unfortunately turned it into his own net.

Melksham's best effort in the second-half came in injury time when a cross took a deflection off Shane Evans' shoulder and bounced on top of the crossbar.

The win will give the Bees a confidence booster ahead of last night's trip to Sherborne Town because apart from the Slimbridge match their form has been quite good.

Bees beaten by late strike

BRIDPORT 2 WILLAND ROVERS 3

Toolstation Premier - att: 57

AN early goal suggested that Bridport might break their four match run without a win, but three second-half goals, the winner three minutes from time saw Willand Rovers take the points.

Ryan Dovell gave the Bees a third minute lead at a blustery St Mary's, finishing off Darren Watts initial shot which was going wide, but despite several attempts at goal failed to add to the score.

Willand recovered from the early setback and Ashley Weeks, standing in for Sam Filkins, produced a superb save midway through the first-half to prevent an equaliser, turning Luke Alden's effort around the post.

Bridport were denied a second goal two minutes into the second-half with claims that the ball had crossed the line twice!

Dovell's header was first deflected onto the bar by Jake Wannell before Shane Evans' follow-up header was then pushed on to the bar again by 'keeper Paul Gibbons before being hacked clear.

Instead Willand equalised on 54 minutes when midfielder Bobby Hopkinson thumped home on the spin after controlling Josh Wadham's shot which was going well wide.

Ten minutes later they were ahead when Alden's cut back cross found Hopkinson on the edge of the box whose first time curled shot gave Weeks no chance.

Gibbons had to make smart saves from Chris Senior and Chris Luke as they pressed for an equaliser before Alden sealed their fate dribbling into the box before beating Weeks.

Although James Clampin headed into his own net in the final minute to reduce the arrears, Bridport could not salvage anything from the game.

The 'Good' Ressies on show

BRIDPORT RESERVES 4 POOLE BOROUGH 0

BRIDPORT Manager Robin Townsend is never sure which team is going to turn up this season as results yo-yo from victory to defeat; such that he described his team's performances akin to Jekyll and Hyde.

After last week's dismal second-half display that saw a 1-0 half-time lead turn into a 6-1 defeat at Mere Town, the Bees produced a much better display beating Poole Borough 4-0 and in doing so keeping a clean sheet. Ben Clarke was the hero with a hat-trick, with Gary Bulman also getting on the score sheet.

Townsend said: "It could have been more than 4-0 but I can't grumble too much, apart from the second half last week we have been playing quite well recently and I was delighted to keep a clean sheet.

"Sam Day had a great game in defence and looks as if he is back to his best, while Chris Herbst, Ashley Clark and Luke King help form a solid back four.

Harry Fleet was excellent in the centre of midfield and Ben took his goals well.

Clarke and Bulman gave the Bees a two-goal lead at the interval with the striker going on to complete his hat trick in the second half.

The Bees boss is now looking for his side to put a run of consistent performances together.

Old, old story - missed chances

BRIDPORT 3RDS 0 DORCHESTER SPORTS 2

FOR the second week running manager Andy Hitchcock blamed missed chances for his side's defeat.

"Although they are top of the league, they are nothing special and I thought we were the better side, but if you don't take your chances then we are going to find it hard.

"Okay their keeper made a couple of big saves particularly from Zak Hawker when he pushed a thunderbolt of a volley over the bar, but we missed so many; Ryan Gall six yards out tries to pass the ball rather than shoot?"

The one positive from the game was the debut of Rhys Hayter who is the county under 16 captain.

"He was head and shoulders above anybody else. He played left of midfield and was got better as the game went on; he was excellent."

Dorchester led 1-0 at the interval and added a second at the death as Bridport pushed forward looking for an equaliser.

Bridport Youth hit the top

DORCHESTER TOWN RANGERS 0

BRIDPORT YOUTH U17s 6

Bridport Youth took top spot in the league after their fourth win in four games at lowly placed Dorchester on Sunday.

Despite camping in the opposition half, the visitors struggled with the blustery conditions which affected the long passes while short pass attacking moves stalled at the edge of the penalty area as Dorchester got eight or nine players behind the ball.

It was midway through the first-half when an Olly Woodcock free-kick was deflected home by Billy Jones to give Bridport the lead.

Soon after Jonah Ayunga doubled the lead with a low drive which bounced over a Dorchester 'keeper who was on top form all game.

The second-half saw Bridport more settled as they played the ball on the ground into the wind forcing corner after corner, one from which Ayunga headed home from Sam Tabner kick.

Tabner then helped himself to a brace, the second an easy tap in from a neat pass by Will Lovell who was excellent in midfield throughout the game deputising for the injured Olly Mullins.

As Bridport spread the ball wider there were also excellent overlaps down the wings from Dan Holt, Callum Douglas and Jack Walklett.

The game was wrapped up when Woodcock netted after a one-two in the box with Tabner.

Manager Terry Warren said: "I was really pleased with the clean sheet as our defence had to deal with a range of long balls that could have caught us out."

Fishing was from West Bay to West Bexington, with the Stone pier at Weymouth opened owing to the bad weather.

The main fish caught were Garfish, Dogfish and Ballen Wrasse. The weigh-in and prize giving was held at Parkdeane Holiday Park at West Bay, followed by a grand prize draw.

Result: 1st Dave Lane 143.1% 2 x Garfish, 2nd PJ Wheeler 136% 2 x Garfish, 3rd Dave Bowyer 128% 2 x Dogfish, Pool for best specimen Dave Lane, Best Lady Rebecca Jarmen 2x Ballen Wrasse, Best Junior Eden Lynham 1 x Dogfish.

people who donated prizes. Thank you also to West Bay Sea Angling Club for running the fishing part of the event and to Parkdeane for the use of their venue. The event raised £1,970 for the Welmar Hospicecare Trust.

A spokesman said: "We will be repeating this worthwhile event again next year and hopefully the weather will kinder to us"

Terras out after early blows

Weymouth 1 Braintree Town 2
FA cup third qual round – att: 775
WEYMOUTH exited the FA Cup at the Bob Lucas Stadium on Saturday after conceding two goals in the first 15 minutes.

The Terras started brightly against their Skrill Premier opponents who sit in fourth place after losing just one of their last eight league games.

But they went a goal behind after five minutes when Matt Paine fired a low shot past 'keeper Jason Matthews from 20 yards after James Mulley controlled Chez Isaac's long cross and played it into his path.

Luke Burbridge shot wide and then fired straight at Nathan McDonald in the 'Iron' goal as he stretched to reach a ball, before Kenny Davies hit the Terras crossbar with a cross.

Braintree increased their lead on 14 minutes when Sean Marks got ahead of Michael Walker to beautifully glide home a header from James Mulley's cross into the far corner.

After a passage of quiet play, the visitors almost ended the tie as a contest when Matthew's blocked Marks' follow-up after deflecting Dan Holman's original shot on to the upright.

Clearly in control, Braintree sat back in the second-half, but could have increased the advantage with 13 minutes left but Davies' effort struck the post after being put in by Mulley.

With time running out Terras' manager Brendon King moved Nathan Walker up front to add weight to the attack.

The move worked as they pulled one back in the 90th minute when Sam Poole headed home Scott Walker's corner, but it was all too little too late.

BASHLEY 0 WEYMOUTH 5
Red Insure cup Round One – att: 112
WEYMOUTH cruised through to the second round of the Red Insure Cup last week with an easy victory over Bashley in their rearranged tie at Cutbury scoring three times in the first 15 minutes.

Jamie Symes opened the scoring in the ninth minute before Dave Allen added a second three minutes later and Dave Ford a third on the quarter hour.

He added a second five minutes before the break to give the Terras a comfortable 4-0 interval lead before Allen completed the scoring with his second 14 minutes from time.
